Admin

- Assisted Newton with their search for a new City Manager.
- WPCOG staff are considering the development of a supervisor training program for local governments. Staff conducted a survey of the region's managers about content suggestions for the program.
- The General Assembly appropriated $4.5 million to the WPCOG for capital projects. Rep. Adams secured the appropriation with the intent to improve the rail corridor from Hickory to Lenoir. Staff has met with state leaders (including the Speaker's Office, Rep. Adams, NCDOT Rail. Division, and Federal Transit Administration) and local leaders to begin work on the project.
